Killed in Railroad Accident.

The funeral of Arthur F. Corliss, who met his death in a railroad accident Thursday morning at Yarmouth Junction, Me., was held Saturday afternoon at the home of his wife's father, C. E. Green, in West Derby. Mr. Corliss was a young man well and favorably known in this village. He was a former second lieutenant in Company L Vt. Nat'l Guard. He had been in the employ of the Grand Trunk railway, running as freight brakeman between Island Pond and Portland for about two years and was an efficient and faithful employee. He was married, a little more than a year ago to Miss Berdina Green of West Derby, to whom with other mourning relatives, the sympathy of everyone must go out in full measure.

NEWPORT

Mrs. L. C. Andrews of Fairlee is visiting relatives in town.

W. A. Dane was in Island Pond Thursday on business.

Mrs. Geo. F. Root is visiting her father at Allston, Mass.

Col. Z. M. Mansur has been in Burlington the past few days.

Frank True of Rutland was a business visitor in town last week.

Mrs. Harry Clarke went Friday to Montreal for medical treatment.

The Beethoven Circle meets Friday evening with Mrs. W. R. Prouty.

George Crafts of Fairfax recently visited his sister, Mrs. J. M. Brigham.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brigham were in Barton Thursday to attend the funeral of J. N. Smith.

"Happy" John Lewis, well known about town, is seriously ill at the home of friends in West Derby.

Mrs. T. S. Wilcox has recovered from her recent long illness and is able to be out of doors again.

The interior of the store of Lane & Dwinell has been in the hands of painters during the past week.

Mrs. A. J. Burns entertained a party of lady friends at "500" at her home on Prospect street Friday evening.

An examination for positions in the U. S. Immigration service was held at the Federal building Tuesday, Feb. 20.

The fortnightly club entertained the gentlemen at the home of Mrs. Benj. Hinman on Friday evening of last week.

Miss Lillian Ashworth of Fall River, Mass., formerly a teacher in the High school here, is visiting at Chas. G. Taylor's.

The Woman's Missionary union will meet with Mrs. Richard Hurst on Summer street on Friday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. A. A. Bishop and her music pupils are now working up material for a recital to be given in the not-far-distant future.

The annual roll call of the Congregational church will be held on Thursday evening, Feb. 22. The usual large attendance is expected.

The merchants of this village have decided to make Wednesday, Feb. 28, "Bargain Day." Their advertisement appears on another page.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Marks' Episcopal church will meet on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 22, with Mrs. Vincent Jones on Bay View street.

A Valentine birthday party was given by Miss Edna Anderson to fourteen of her friends, at her home on Central street, Wednesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Dwinell and Mrs. Ellen Lane returned the first of the week from their southern trip. Lee O. Drew, who has been in New York, returned with them.

Geo. F. Root, grand commander visited several towns in the southern part of the state last week on his official tour of inspection of several commanderies of the Knights Templar.

The fourth of the illustrated travel talks by Rev. H. B. Rankin was given to an appreciative audience at School Hall Friday evening. The subject was the Rocky Mountains and the Great Basin.

Allyn Bishop started Monday night of last week for his former home in Prince Edward Island in response to a telegram received announcing the death of his brother. No particulars were given and Mr. Bishop has not returned at this writing.

After an unbroken season of zero weather lasting since before Christmas the milder weather of last week was "warmly" welcomed, particularly by those who are short on both money and coal, an experience which is by no means new to the local editor.

The funeral of Mrs. Ichabod Roby was held at the home of Mrs. G. M. Dearborn on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 13, Rev. L. A. Edwards officiating. The body was entombed at West Derby and final interment will be made in Corinth, the former home of the deceased.

The Boston-Montreal express was about an hour late Wednesday evening of last week, caused by the death of the fireman, who fell from his engine and was instantly killed. The man, whose home was in Concord, was not missed until the train had proceeded a mile from the scene of the accident.

Miss Elsie Tredo gave a Valentine party for her young friends on Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, at the home of her mother, Mrs. O. W. Greaser on West Main street. An interesting program was carried out in which the guests took an active part. Valentines were exchanged and light refreshments served.

E. C. Blanchard and S. G. Scott are reported to have purchased the Currier farm in North Troy, the price paid being $12000. It is also said that a new street will be laid out and a portion of the property will be sold for building lots. In a hustling village like North Troy this ought to prove a profitable venture.

A party of ten Newport people attended the 37th anniversary of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church at North Troy Wednesday night Feb. 14. The party included Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Gaines, Mrs. Lizzie Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flint, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bailey, Miss Mattie Galbraith, Mrs. H. L. Baker and H. D. Lindsay.

The Mendelssohn club under the direction of Prof. Gill with Mrs. Wilson, soprano, gave a concert at Seaver's Hall, Barton, Thursday evening, Feb. 15. Owing to other attractions the same evening, the attendance was not as large as might have been desired. The club has given several entertainments this season and their efforts have met with favor from the public.

Do not forget that this week is Parents' week in the schools and that special exercises by the pupils for the benefit of the parents and others interested, are given at 2 and 3 o'clock each afternoon. Work of the pupils will be on exhibition in all the rooms and it is hoped that friends of the school will come in and encourage both teachers and pupils by this exhibition of their interest.

Ladies' night at the Young Men's Improvement club, which was scheduled to occur Tuesday evening of this week was cancelled by the managers through their inability to secure the St. Johnsbury academy Glee club as entertainers, the schools in St. Johnsbury having been closed for a time on account of smallpox in the town. Though the program for the club's winter entertainment has been laid out by the committee in charge, it is hoped yet to get the Glee club for a Ladies' night at some time in the near future. As the program now stands the next entertainment in the club course will be a talk, J. M. Bars, superintendent of the state Industrial school at Vergennes.

First La Grippe then Bronchitis

That was the case with Mrs. W. S. Bailey of Newbury, Ky. "My wife was taken down with a severe attack of la grippe, which run into bronchitis. She coughed as though she had consumption and could not sleep at night. The first bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gave her so much relief that she continued using it until she was permanently cured." F. D. Pierce.

Card of thanks.—We hereby wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all our neighbors and friends for sympathy and help during the burial of our beloved son and brother. We would thank the singers, and friends for the many beautiful flowers. May God so reward you in your hour of trouble.

Mrs. Emma Archer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Archer, Richard Archer, Roy Archer.

Mrs. Oliver Corkum, whose illness has been mentioned in the Monitor several times, died at the home of Mr. Corkum's sister, Mrs. Douglass, Thursday, Feb. 15 after several weeks of intense suffering. Mrs. Corkum was married Aug. 24 of last year and was only 17 years of age, she lived here only a short time, but made many friends by her gentle ways. The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Douglass Saturday, Feb. 17, W. R. Price officiating. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Dunn, and eleven brothers and sisters.

Johnnie Brooks died Wednesday, Feb. 14, after a few days' illness of heart trouble at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hinton, where he had made his home for the past five years. He was a young man 21 years of age but had never been strong, having a valvular trouble with his heart. He made many friends, and endeared himself to Mr. and Mrs. Hinton by his thoughtfulness and kindness to them during their sickness and trouble, and by his faithfulness in his work. The funeral was held in the church Friday afternoon, W. R. Price officiating, where the presence of a large number of friends and the beautiful flowers testified to the love and respect held for him. The remains were laid in the tomb.

Card of Thanks.—We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and help shown us during the illness and burial of our friend, Johnnie Brooks. We would also thank the singers, and friends for the beautiful flowers and hope that God will reward you in your hour of trouble. Mr. and Mrs. John Hinton and family.

An Epidemic of Coughing

Is sweeping over the town. Old and young alike are affected, and the strain is particularly hard on little children and on elderly people. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a quick, safe and reliable cure for all coughs and colds. Contains no opiates. F. D. Pierce.
